The association asks relief from the alleged discrimination and unjust rates.

In conference with the commission on the readjustment of rates in conformity with the new law, the Eastern railways will be represented by these men; Trunk lines—Freight Representative G. Dixon, of the Pennsylvania; Passenger Representative G. F. Daly, New York Central. New England lines—Freight Representative L. H. Kentfield, New York, New Haven and Hartford; G. M. Burt, Boston and Maine. The commission's representatives will not be named until next week, when the entire commission is to meet.

Complaint was filed yesterday by J. B. Harrell, of Oklahoma City, against the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway Company with the Interstate Commerce Commission. Harrell charges that he has to pay $4.50 a ton on coal from $t. Louis to pay $4.50 a ton on coal from $t. Louis to Oklahoma City, when the same coal is to Oklahoma City, when the same coal is shipped from the mines in West Virginia for $2.50 a ton.
